

Annual Fall Quilt Show

Posted: 7/30/2010

If you have a passion for quilts and want to experience the continuing tradition of quilting, then you will want to visit the Wyandotte County Museum's Annual Fall Quilt Show.

"There are more than 50 community quilts are on display,"

Patricia Schurkamp, Museum Director said. "In addition to traditional quilts, you'll see quilted purses, a table runner and placemats and Christmas stockings."

This exhibition highlights the creativity and talent in the Wyandotte County community. The exhibit began Monday, July 26, 2010, and runs through Saturday, September 25, 2010.

From the collections of the museum, the Sesquicentennial Celebration Quilt is on display. The quilt features the 150 years of history of Wyandotte County, along with the signatures of well-wishers that attended the 150th birthday bash for Wyandotte County last June.

The Wyandotte County Museum is located in Wyandotte County Park at 126th Street and State Ave. Admission is free. Exhibit hours are Monday – Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. to 12 noon.
