I. POLICY

It is the policy of the Detention Center to ensure that Inmates are afforded all established rights consistent with their status.

A. Inmates have certain rights relative to their conditions of confinement. These rights include the following:

1. Staff Supervision in all aspects of institutional life by staff.
2. Housing assignment based on the Inmate's classification and the types of housing available in the Detention Center.
3. Clean and orderly surroundings.
4. Adequate toilet, bathing and laundry facilities.
5. Adequate lighting, heating and ventilation.
6. Living conditions that are in compliance with state, federal and local fire and safety laws and regulations.
7. A nutritionally adequate diet, prepared in compliance with all applicable Federal, Local, and State Regulations.
8. Properly sized clothing.
9. Participation in the classification process.
