The 8th Annual Community Development Workshop is an opportunity to learn from leaders in community development, collaborate with neighborhood change-makers, and be empowered to transform your community.

Join us for this important community event that will include a morning session led by Dr. Marvia Jones, Violence Prevention and Policy Manager with the City of Kansas City Health Department, as well as interactive breakout sessions focused on four tracks that will engage you in a deeper discussion of community development and the roles we each play in supporting safe and sustainable neighborhoods. This year’s tracks are:

- Policy and Equitable Neighborhoods
- Health and Built Environment
- Neighborhood Climate Action
- Small Business as Community Development

The Community Development Workshop is open to ANYONE seeking to make a positive change in their neighborhood and community: neighborhood residents, grassroots activists, government and nonprofit leaders, and other community stakeholders from both Kansas and Missouri. Registration is FREE but required, with an option to donate available. Breakfast, coffee, and lunch are provided to all registered participants and donations cover this expense. PLEASE NOTE: attendees must register for this event individually.

The Community Development Workshop is organized by the Community Capital Fund, in partnership with Greater Kansas City LISC, Livable Neighborhoods, Center for Neighborhoods, Bridging the Gap, and Youth Ambassadors.
