

Quindaro and Mt Hope Cemeteries

Quindaro Cemetery is located at N. 38th and Parallel. It borders Mt Hope Cemetery at N 34th and Parallel on the east. Enter Quindaro from 38th and park by the water tower. You can walk between the two cemeteries, but no roads connect them. On foot you can tell where the cemeteries meet by the direction of the stones. If you preferer you can also enter Mt Hope from Parallel. Plan an hour for the one-mile walking tour provided by the Wyandotte County Museum.

1. Callaway Manning Flora, Civil War Union Veteran, survived small pox, two captures, shootings, a stabbing and more.
2. Gary Apostle grave marker has an unique hidden feature.
3. Harry Shoffenburg was moved from Huron to Quindaro in 1906.
4. Winfield was an attorney for the Kansas City Elevated Railway Company. Freeman Avenue was named for him. His wife Reba was instrumental in the founding of Bethany Hospital.
5. Dr. George Gray served as mayor of KCK and assisted Father Kuhl in establishing St. Margaret's Hospital.
6. J. C. Klamm owned a farm where Klamm Park is today.
7. Elizabeth Dickinson was a teacher and 1st librarian of the KCKPL.
8. Joseph T and George E Butterweck were both killed by lighting. They were buried on what was to be their sister's wedding day.
9. Capt. William Hogarty lost his arm and hearing in the Civil War.
10. Dr. Peter David Hughes was the chief of surgery and one of the founders of Bethany Hospital.
11. Dr. Katherine Stemen Hughes was considered one of the city's most prominent female physicians in the early 1900s.
12. Rheia Hughes Day, mother of Dr Hughes Day, who opened the first coronary care unit in the United States and set-up the first crash cart.
13. Sgt Vernon Adams & Lt Rodney Adams were killed in action exactly two months apart. A double burial for the brothers took place on October 10, 1948.
14. Josephine George Edgecomb has a homemade stone possibly made by a family member.

Approximate dividing line Quindaro and Mt Hope

Entrance

1. Flora: GPS 39.12924686, -94.6700633

2. Apostle: GPS 39.1292618, -94.6729806

3. Shaffenburg: GPS 39.1292618, -94.6729806

4. Freeman: GPS 39.1310061, -94.6719929

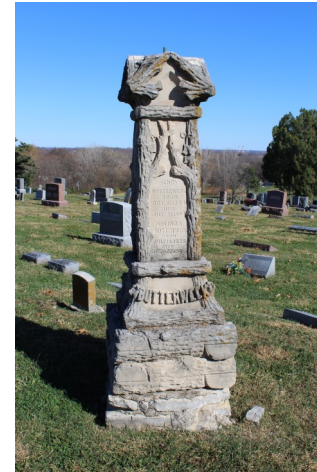

5. Gray: GPS 39.1310068, -94.6719870

6. Klamm: GPS 39.1310068, -94.6719870

7. Dickinson: GPS 39.128404, -94.67233244

8. Butterweck: GPS 39.128404, -94.67233244

9. Hogarty: GPS 39.128404, -94.67233244

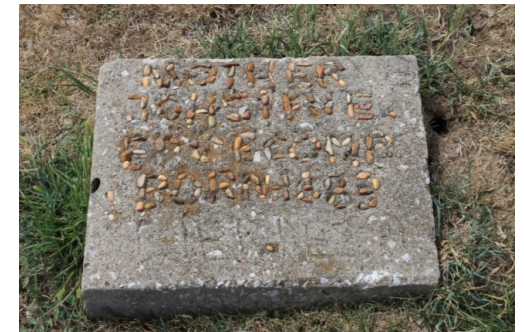

Dividing wall between the two cemeteries, the rest of tour is in Mount Hope .

10-12. Hughes: GPS 39.1322993, -94.6723244

13. Adams: GPS 39.1309645, -94.6721287

14. Edgecomb: GPS 39.1310328, -94.6719957